- Everyone welcome
- All practice together and at their own pace.
- The main focus of the course will be to relax and release tension.
- We will be practising pranayama (breath control) to release tension in the body & mind.
- We will be practising a series of standing postures (asanas) and floor postures to increase strength and flexibility, each week we will practice a flow sequence to learn that you can practice at home.
- A meditation and a relaxation t the end of each session
- For beginners a gentle introduction and for the more advanced to go deeper into their practice.

- ❖ You are booking for the course times and dates stated on the booking form;
